Messiah Lutheran Church seeks to be a welcoming community for all people. This includes people of every race, ability, sexual orientation and gender identity, ethnic background, economic grouping, religious affiliation, and political persuasion.

We do this simply because God created all people in God's own image and Christ Jesus came so all people might have abundant and eternal life.

We may not always be as welcoming as we should be, but this is our intention—all are welcome!

Pray for the 2025 Churchwide Assembly

From July 28 to August 2, delegates from across the ELCA (our denomination) will gather in Phoenix, Arizona, for the Churchwide Assembly — a time of worship, decision-making, and discernment for our whole church.

The delegates from our Synod are Bishop Katherine Finegan, Charlotte Strom, Pastor Alex LaChapelle, Hayley Smith, Chuck Thomas, Pastor Scott Ehle, and Adam Matyska.

We invite you to keep our Synod's delegates and the greater church in your prayers. Ask the Spirit to guide their conversations, honor the richness of our varied experiences, and renew our shared calling to love and serve in Christ's name.

God of wisdom, be present in every voice and vote. Let your church be led with courage and grace. Amen.

Coming in August: “Revealed – Hope at the Edge of the World”

A New Sermon Series on the Book of Revelation

Starting in August, we're going to spend five Sundays with a book that many of us have avoided, misunderstood, or just found a little...weird: Revelation.

But what if it's not about predicting the end of the world? What if it's about how to live in the world—faithfully, courageously, hopefully—even when things feel like they're falling apart? This series is an invitation to read Revelation not with fear, but with open eyes and open hands. We'll talk about empire and allegiance, beauty and resistance, and the kind of hope that doesn't ignore what's hard but moves through it.

There'll be a daily devotional to guide us through the month. Plenty of space for honest questions. And (I hope) a fresh look at a strange and stunning text.

If you're looking for a thoughtful way to engage the tension between faith and empire, hope and realism, Revelation might have more to say than you've been led to believe. – Pr. Andrew

Beach Worship Is Back!

We're heading back to the beach this summer—and you're invited. On the first Sunday of August, and on Labor Day weekend, our 10:30 worship will take place at Clark Lambros Beach Park.

Mark your calendars: • August 3 • August 31

Bring a chair, bring a friend, and come ready to worship with sand between your toes and

Lake Superior as our chancel. There's nothing quite like singing, praying, and sharing communion with the waves rolling in.

If the weather doesn't cooperate, we'll be in the sanctuary like usual. But here's hoping for sunshine and a light breeze!

Qigong at Messiah

Qigong for Balance, Breathing and Health

9-9:45 AM, Beginning August 7th, Thursdays in Magnuson Hall. Donations to the church.

Years ago, we offered a Paul Lam series focused on teaching Range of Motion. Gentle, not expansive movements. No competition. Chair qigong is an option as needed. Slow movements are healthier. Breathing.

This next series will focus on Mind/Body Internal Practices. Neigong (naygong) is 3,000 years old. Mind/Body practice can release tension, increase balance and flexibility. An invitation to calmness and efficiency of movement. All for health. - - - Diana Magnuson

September Visit from Members of Azania Front, Tanzania

As many of you know, plans have been in the works for over a year for members of our companion congregation in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania, to visit us this fall. The Global Mission team is pleased to report that of the ten people applying for travel visas to the US eight people received them, one was denied and one is still waiting for an interview. We have invited them to be with us in Marquette September 20-30 and are looking forward to welcoming them to our congregation and community and learning from them as well.

All of us can play a role in making this group feel welcome. Check out the kiosk in the atrium with the group members' pictures and information. Note the side which has the photos from the 2017 visit. Think of how you can share the faith life at Messiah and this church's place in this community. Specifically, we ask you to:

1. Pray for their safe travel.
2. Introduce yourselves at worship and at other congregational events.

3. Take some of our guests with you to your favorite place, activity, store, or event.
4. Provide housing for two or more of them for one or two of the weeks they are here. a. Hosting would include some meals (especially breakfast) and transportation (usually to Messiah to meet the bus) b. Hosting for about half of the visit is a fine option
5. Invite some of them to your home for a meal.

We are eager for your ideas & your help outside of hosting--check out the sign up sheet or contact a member of the Global Mission team through the church office.

Bowls for a Cause

Turned Wooden Bowls are available for a donation to the community assistance fund. They are located next to the homemade jams in the narthex. All bowls are homemade and are finished with a food safe finish. If you have questions about the bowls they can be directed to Paul Carstens at pcarsten@alumni.nmu.edu.

Messiah's Community Assistance Fund

A mid-year update on our assistance fund. Our dedicated group of volunteers - Mary Lou Bloomquist, Bill Davis, Mike Coyne, Laurel Kniskern, and Pam Christiansen - graciously give their time throughout the week to see up to 12-15 people and help them with their needs. We most often give money for utilities, rent, medical bills, car insurance/repairs, and bus tickets. We are five months out from Giving Tuesday where we raise most of the monetary resources for the assistance fund, but with our calculations and the potential of cuts to social services, we expect that we will run out of funds well before then. I am asking you to think about contributing at this time of the year if you have some extra funds to give. This ministry is essential to our community, it not only helps people with bills, but it allows us to show God's love and care to those who are most in need.

How can you help?

- Donate to the assistance fund!
 - Bring in food for our small pantry - especially things that are easy to prepare like chili, cereals, pastas and sauce, etc. When bringing canned goods, check for an easy open top.
 - Do you know of other organizations in the area that help people? Let us know so that we can expand the help each person is receiving.
 - Do you know of any grants we could apply for?

Senior Men's Ministry

Messiah's Senior Men's Bible Study has been meeting every Friday morning at 9:00 am in room #202. Please join them on Friday morning (except for Friday, July 4; no Bible study that day because it's a holiday).

Knotty Knitters

The Knotty Knitters will continue to meet at Messiah on the 2nd & 4th Tuesday of each month. The knitters typically meet in Magnuson Hall but occasionally meet in the atrium. They do join one another for lunch at Vangos prior to coming to Messiah. Please contact Shelly Johnson for more information.

A/V Project Update: Let's Keep Going

Thanks to your generosity, we've already raised $12,000 toward our $30,000 goal to complete the next phase of A/V improvements at Messiah. These upgrades will make our worship more accessible for those with hearing aids, improve sound in shared spaces like the atrium and nursery, refresh Magnuson Hall's system, and strengthen our internet & streaming capacity. With matching funds approved by Church Council, every dollar you give is doubled, bringing us even closer to the finish line. Let's keep going. Let's finish what we started—together.

Jam News

The 2025 jam season is in full swing and there are freshly made jam jars on the shelves in the atrium. There is a small increase in cost, so in turn there will be an increase in price. The jam has been offered at $5.00 per jar since 2015. It is now priced at $6.00 per jar. We are offering a new product which is smaller jars at $3.00 each. The smaller jars will be limited in quantity. These smaller jars will provide an opportunity to try a flavor you haven't tasted before or get a few at $3.00 each for a gift for someone. As always, your purchase goes to Messiah's community assistance fund throughout the year.

Brookridge Worship

Our worship service at Brookridge is held on the 2nd & 4th Wednesday at 1:30 pm. Several of our members live there & attend our service regularly. Our service includes hymns, confession, absolution, thanksgiving, psalms, scripture, a homily, Apostles' Creed and Holy Communion. It is a real worship service.

Worshipping with this congregation is a blessing. The singing is robust, the prayers are from the heart, communion and forgiveness is truly felt and the fellowship is sincere.

Summer Generosity Matters

Summer brings a welcome change of pace—time for rest, travel, and renewal. But while many of us shift into vacation mode, the ministry of the church continues in full swing. From worship and music to outreach and care, our shared mission doesn't take a break.

Historically, summer is a time when financial giving dips, simply because routines change. Yet your consistent generosity helps sustain the work we've committed to together. Whether it's supporting local food programs, keeping our building cool and welcoming, or planning for fall ministries, every gift matters.

If you're traveling, consider setting up automatic giving or making a one-time summer offering to keep momentum strong. Your support ensures that we remain a steady presence of hope and hospitality—even when calendars get full and rhythms shift.

Let's continue to be faithful stewards in every season, trusting that God multiplies even the simplest gifts offered in love.

Endowment Fund Update

The team entrusted with developing "The Robert Malette Mission Endowment Fund Of Messiah Lutheran Church" has met four times. Much of our time has focused on preservation of principle and as well as the method of determining the amount of money available for distribution. We are working on the wording of the governing document as well as an application form. These things will be reviewed by our legal consultant, financial consultant and the council once they are finished. There will be no grants in 2025 but are planning for the process to begin in 2026.

The fund has not been harmed or helped by the fluctuation in the monetary climate this year as it is presently in interest-earning money market funds. - - - Judy Quirk

What is Centering Prayer?

Centering prayer is a form of silent prayer that emphasizes resting in God's presence through silence and a sacred word. It involves finding a quiet space, sitting comfortably, and focusing on a chosen word to help maintain stillness and let go of thoughts. The goal is to cultivate a deeper relationship with God through stillness and receptivity. Several members of Messiah lead groups that practice this form of prayer throughout the week as a piece of their faith life. -

- Pr. Molly Hunter

Centering Prayer

I've practiced meditation now for 37 years. I began when I was struggling with the stresses of daily living. Later, I used meditation not only to deal with stress, but with physical issues (no doubt exacerbated by stress). After many years of practice on my own, I decided to attend a Buddhist retreat because those Buddhists sure knew how to meditate and I wanted to make sure I was doing it "right."

Long story short, I make it a priority to attend one retreat per year. At a retreat, the world is placed in the background. My basic need for food and shelter is provided and all the time is spent in prayer.

Prayer has really changed for me. No longer do I pray for specifics, because I have come to learn that what I think I want and what I truly want do not always match. God knows exactly what I want, and what I need to make it in this world, and when I practice 'being still' I allow that wisdom to arrive. Since I am not relying on any other person to tell me how to get what I want, but rather I am trusting in the "Advocate" to guide me, the things that are revealed to me are customized for my own personal growth and so God's Will can be done.

For some people who practice meditation, blissful spiritual experiences happen, but most sincere spiritual teachers warn that this is not the goal and often becomes a hindrance towards continued spiritual growth. It never has happened for me and I believe this is because if it had, I would be chasing that experience again for the remainder of my life. Instead, I have found that wisdom comes to me in insights, not while I am meditating, but in day-to-day life.

The longer I practice this form of prayer, the more I see that everything that happens in life has the potential to teach me.

Now, in my old age, I recognize the value of being still and welcoming God's Presence. I start to believe that I am loved and accompanied by God in all situations. I realize that God is removing false identities from me and giving me a new vision of my fellow humans. I understand that it is only Divine Love that ever heals. More and more, with faithful practice, I receive God's grace and then am able to surprise myself when that grace comes forth for me to give to others.

If you are interested in practicing Centering Prayer, we meet in room 202 on the following days:

Mondays at 5:30 pm -20-minute centering prayer practice with a short reading from Divine Therapy & Addiction by Thomas Keating

Tuesdays at 11:00 am -20-minute centering prayer practice with Lectio Divina

Thursdays at 1:30 pm - 20-minute practice with a short reading from Invitation to Love by Thomas Keating

A Daily Guide for July

July 1 – Begin Again

Let today be a creative threshold. Ask: What can I co-create with God this month that brings hope or justice into the world?

July 2 – A Prayer for Justice

Pray: "God of righteousness, stir my heart for what is good and fair. Let my life reflect your justice and mercy."

July 3 – Doodle Hope

Take five minutes to sketch, doodle, or scribble whatever comes to mind when you think of hope. Let it be messy and free.

July 4 – Reflect on Freedom

As you mark this day, reflect on the meaning of true freedom—not just for some, but for all. Pray: "God of liberation, help me use my freedom not for comfort or silence, but for compassion and courage. Teach me to seek justice in love."

July 5 – Create Something New

Bake, build, write, plant, or paint. Let your creativity be a quiet resistance to despair.

July 6 – Pray with Your Hands

Engage in a hands-on task—gardening, kneading dough, folding laundry—as a form of prayer. Let every motion become a sacred rhythm.

July 7 – Listen Deeply

Seek out a story you don't usually hear. Listen to a podcast, read a book, or watch a documentary from a different perspective.

July 8 – Write a Justice Haiku

Write a short poem about justice, mercy, or hope in haiku form. Even a few words can move hearts.

July 9 – Celebrate Progress

Notice a way the world has changed for the better—big or small. Give thanks for those who made that change possible.

July 10 – Plant Hope

Plant wildflower seeds or herbs, either in your yard, a pot, or a community space. Trust that small actions bloom.

July 11 – Name What Breaks Your Heart

Write down a justice issue or need that burdens you. Offer it to God, and ask what small role you might play in healing it.

July 12 – Joy Is Resistance

Do something joyful today on purpose. Dance, laugh, sing, or play. Let your joy stand as a defiant act of hope.

July 13 – Create Space

Declutter a corner of your life—your home, schedule, or inbox. Make room for what really matters.

July 14 – Honor a Changemaker

Reach out to someone who works for justice or healing and thank them. A note or kind word can be fuel for their journey.

July 15 – Scripture of Creative Justice

Read Amos 5:24 – “But let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.” Reflect on how you might be part of that flow.

July 16 – Gratitude for Mentors

Pray for mentors and role models. Honor those who have shaped you with love and integrity.

July 17 – Make Art with Children

If you can, spend time creating with a child—coloring, crafting, imagining. See the world through their lens of wonder and hope.

July 18 – Pray with Movement

Take a walk, stretch, or do yoga as a way of praying. Let your body carry your hopes and petitions.

July 19 – Pray for Repair

Hope and justice begin with truth. Take time today to learn about a harm—historic or ongoing—in your community or country. Ask God to show you what repair might look like, and how you might be part of it.

July 20 – Midyear Check-In

We're halfway through the year. Ask: What's growing in me? What needs to be pruned or planted?

July 21 – Bless the Light

Step into the sunlight and bless the warmth. Say, "God, thank you for the light within and around me."

July 22 – Create a Visual Prayer

Use images, magazine clippings, or found objects to make a collage prayer. Let your creativity express your longings.

July 23 – Pay Attention to Injustice

Notice one injustice in your community today. What do you see that others might ignore? Ask God how you might respond.

July 24 – Bless the Artists

Pray for artists, poets, and creators who help us see truth and beauty. May their work challenge, comfort, and inspire.

July 25 – Reach Out Across Difference

Connect with someone whose background, politics, or worldview differs from yours. Approach with curiosity and grace.

July 26 – Sabbath of the Imagination

Take a break from your usual routines and do something playful or spontaneous. Let your soul breathe.

July 27 – Hope in Scripture

Read 2 Corinthians 4:8–9: "We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed... struck down, but not destroyed." Let this truth steady your heart.

July 28 – Invite Collaboration

Ask someone to join you in a creative or justice-focused act. Hope grows when we don't go it alone.

July 29 – Share a Story

Tell a story—your own or someone else's—that reflects resilience, grace, or redemption. Stories keep hope alive.

July 30 – Pray for Co-Creation

Pray: "God of imagination and justice, shape my heart for your work. Help me co-create a world where all can flourish. Amen."

July 31 – Give Thanks for the Journey

Take time to reflect on how you've grown this month. Give thanks for each step, each effort, each breath of hope.

Marketing. We are seeking a "home base" family who can help him feel at home in Marquette and provide some experiences he would not get in the dorms and house him during times the dorms are closed for breaks. This is a rewarding, educational experience for the local family. Please contact the church office for Mary Lou Blomquist's contact information if you are interested in this experience.

Iconography: Painting as a Spiritual Practice – October 13-18

Iconography is an ancient Christian tradition where painting becomes a form of prayer. More than just creating art, it's a spiritual practice—slow, reflective, and deeply rooted in centuries of sacred storytelling. Through color, shape, and tradition, icons invite us to see with new eyes and connect with the divine in a hands-on, meaningful way.

This 6-day workshop in October, led by a teacher from the Prosopon School, offers a unique chance to step into this sacred art form. It's open to anyone—no art experience needed. The workshop is an investment of both time and resources, but full details (including cost and registration) are available online.

The workshop will be held at St. Louis the King Catholic Church (264 Silver Creek Rd. in Marquette). For more information, contact Mary Jane Lynch 906 360-5279 or maryjanelynch62@yahoo.com.

Money to support is from fundraising, grants and donations. This organization is a 501c3 group so donations are tax deductible. But I cannot emphasize enough....to CALL if you need help.
