Going Away GIFT for Pr. Molly

If you would like to contribute to a going away gift for Pr. Molly, please bring your monetary donation to the church office. The church is getting her a gift card from Menards. Molly & Ethan have bought a home in Illinois; they have some painting they would like to do and possibly a make-over to some flooring. There are always things to update in a home! This will help them to get a good start to the homeowner "to-do" list. If you are giving by a personal check, please make it payable to Messiah and in the note/memo area write Pr. Molly gift. If you would prefer to give her a gift on your own, that is fine too.

Potluck Lunch for Pastor Molly – February 15

We'll celebrate with a potluck following the 10:30 am worship service (around 11:45 am). Please bring a dish to pass. The church will provide chicken and cake. Come help us send Pastor Molly and her family with love, gratitude, and full hearts.

You Are Invited: Ash Wednesday & the Journey Through Lent

This Lent at Messiah, we begin with a simple yet profound truth: all are invited.

In a world that often draws lines and builds walls, the gospel does the opposite. It pulls up another chair, opens the door wider, and reminds us—again and again—that there is a place for every one of us at God's table.

On Ash Wednesday, we'll gather to mark the beginning of this holy season. With ashes on our foreheads and grace in our hearts, we'll remember who we are and whose we are: beloved, dust-born, and held by God. This is not a journey of shame or scarcity, but of invitation—into deeper connection, community, and love.

This year's theme, "Tell Me Something Good," (from A Sanctified Art) invites us to ground ourselves in the good news of the gospel. And the good news is this: no matter who you are, no matter where you've been, you are loved. You are welcomed. You are enough.

Bowls for a Cause

A Daily Guide for February 2026

February 1 – Begin with Truth

February invites honesty. Ask yourself: What is true about my life right now?

Offer that truth to God without editing or fixing.

Pray: God of truth, help me be honest with myself and with you. Hold what is real in me with mercy. Amen.

February 2 – Ground Yourself

Place your feet flat on the floor. Notice your breath.

Say: "I am here. God is with me."

February 3 – Learn a Story

Read or listen to the story of a Black leader, artist, or elder.

Give thanks for their courage and the legacy they leave.

February 4 – Remember the Unnamed

Say a prayer for those whose contributions were never recorded, whose labor was taken, whose stories were silenced. Justice begins with remembering.

February 5 – Act with Intention

Support Black-owned work today—buy a book, share art, donate, amplify a voice.

Small acts build shared good.

February 6 – Rest Is Sacred

Honor the wisdom of rest, especially in a culture that glorifies exhaustion.

Take rest seriously today.

February 7 – Speak Life

Offer words that affirm dignity—to yourself or to someone else.

Let your language carry care.

February 8 – Watch for Courage

Notice acts of quiet courage around you. Name them.

Courage often looks ordinary.

February 9 – Listen Before Responding

In conversation today, practice listening without planning your reply.

Let understanding come first.

February 10 – Body Awareness

Notice how your body feels today—tired, strong, tense, calm.

Give thanks for how it carries you.

February 11 – Hope in Community

Reflect on a time you were supported by others. Hope grows when it's shared.

Pray: God of connection, remind me that I am not meant to do this alone. Help me receive help as freely as I offer it. Amen.

February 12 – Name What Needs Healing

Write down one thing—in yourself or the world—that needs healing.

Hold it in prayer, not urgency.

February 13 – Love with Action

Do one thing today that puts love into motion: show up, speak out, give, or serve.

February 14 – Love Beyond Romance

Today, widen the meaning of love.

Honor friendship, solidarity, care, and commitment to the common good.

February 15 – Prepare Your Heart

Lent is near. Ask: What am I carrying that feels heavy?

You don't have to drop it yet—just notice it.

February 16 – Remember the Long Arc

Reflect on this truth: justice and transformation take time.

Ask God for patience and perseverance.

February 17 – The Day Before

On the eve of Ash Wednesday, slow down.

Pray: God, help me enter this season with honesty and courage.

February 18 – Ash Wednesday

Hear the words: "You are dust, and to dust you shall return."

This is not shame—it's truth and tenderness.

Let the ashes remind you: you are fragile, finite, and deeply loved.

Pray: God of dust and breath, I remember that I am fragile and finite. Hold me in my limits and meet me with grace. Amen.

February 19 – Sit with the Ashes

Resist the urge to rush past yesterday.

What did the ashes awaken in you—grief, clarity, resolve, relief?

February 20 – Choose One Practice

Lent isn't about doing everything.

Choose one simple practice—letting go, showing up, telling the truth.

February 21 – Make Space

Clear physical or emotional space today.

Say: "I am making room for what matters."

February 22 – First Sunday of Lent

Lent begins not with answers, but with trust.

Reflect: What does it mean to walk with God through uncertainty?

Pray: God of the wilderness, walk with me when the path is unclear. Give me courage to keep going, one step at a time. Amen.

February 23 – Stay with the Question

Don't resolve everything today.

Let one meaningful question accompany you through the week.

February 24 – Honest Prayer

Pray without polish.

God can hold your frustration, doubt, and hope all at once.

February 25 – Attend to Justice

Lent is personal and communal.

Notice one place where your life connects to others' suffering—and pray for wisdom to respond.

February 26 – Gentle Discipline

Choose one small act of faithfulness today.

Consistency matters more than intensity.

February 27 – Carry One Another

Check in on someone who might be struggling.

Say: "You don't have to carry this alone."

February 28 – End with Hope

Look back over the month. Despite the weight, where did you glimpse hope?

Thank God for that light—and trust it will grow.

Pray: God of hope, thank you for every small sign of light this month. Help me trust that you are still at work, even now. Amen.

---

What is Centering Prayer?

Centering prayer is a form of silent prayer that emphasizes resting in God's presence through silence and a sacred word. It involves finding a quiet space, sitting comfortably, and focusing on a chosen word to help maintain stillness and let go of thoughts. The goal is to cultivate a deeper relationship with God through stillness and receptivity. Several members of Messiah lead groups that practice this form of prayer throughout the week as a piece of their faith life. - Pr. Molly Hunter

Centering Prayer

"When we no longer know what to do,

We have come to our real work

And when we no longer know which way to go,

We have begun our real journey." - - - By Wendell Berry

Wendell Berry is one of my go-to inspirational writers, along with Maya Angelou, Thich Nhat Hanh, Thomas Merton, Mary Oliver, Joan Chittister and Thomas Keating. These wonderful authors take me where I want to go before I begin to sit in silence.

2026 came in cold and hard. We had a terribly terrific winter storm where neighbors were without power, some for days. The waves ran high over the black rocks while, inland from the lake, many trees came down from the force of the wind, ice and snow. We were in the dark, quiet and alone for a period of time. And maybe that was a good thing, because we had just found out that the United States went into the capital of Venezuela to capture the President and his wife. It was a lot to take in.

This is when I am grateful for Centering Prayer that teaches me to sit, breathe, and let everything go, just for now. Give it space. The practice is not easy for me, especially when I sit by myself. Sometimes I only last 5 minutes. Yet, those 5 minutes help me to breathe through the day. To be present without fear or anxiety. Tomorrow I will sit again. Most days I sit for 20 minutes with a morning zoom group. On Mondays, I sit at Messiah in room 202 at 5:30 pm. I would love for you to join me.

- - - Laura Petrie

The card asks people to put their prayer requests on the back, and these requests are prayed for every Tuesday morning at Messiah's staff meeting.
