We practice a rotational Sunday School curriculum where students engage with a single Bible story each month through different activities- music, games, drama, art & more. Sunday School begins on September 13th, and registration is open online. Join us this fall to meet friends and explore faith! If you have questions about Sunday School or would like to volunteer, please email our interim children's ministry coordinator at Emma@messiahlutheranmqt.org or call the church office.

The Bells of Messiah Will Ring Once More – Begins September 14

Yes, it is time for rehearsals or the Bell Choir to resume. The first rehearsal for the Fall 2026 season will be Monday, September 14 from 5:45 to 6:45 pm.

New members are welcome. If you've been in band, choir or orchestra in school, this may be the group you need to recapture that feeling of companionship. If you have little knowledge of musical notation or little ability to read music, you may still fit as the music can be marked. As director I have said that if you can count to four, you probably can ring bells. So please consider joining us Monday, September 14, 5:45 to 6:45 pm.

Bible Sunday! – September 20

On Sunday, September 20th at our 10:30 service, we will bless all the new Bibles for our three-year olds, 3rd graders & 7th graders.

In baptism, parents & sponsors promise to faithfully bring children to worship God in community, teach them the Lord's Prayer, the Creed and the Ten Commandments, to place in their hands the Holy Scriptures, and to help them learn and grow. Our faithful congregation works with families to joyfully share the responsibility of these promises.

Please mark your calendars for this special date and please RSVP by 9/17 to let us know if you will be present for 10:30 worship on Sept 20th. Thank you!

Brookridge Worship - September 23

Faith Ventures Combined Worship – September 27

As part of our transition process, Messiah will gather as one community for Faith Ventures on Sunday, September 27 at 10:00 am. We will worship around tables, share Holy Communion, dwell in Genesis 8, and listen together for God's direction in this season of new beginnings. Because this service centers on conversation, our regular radio broadcast will not be possible. The Transition Team is preparing an online virtual table for remote worshipers, as well as a reflection guide for those participating independently. There will be no Saturday 5:00 pm service and no separate Sunday services that weekend. Sunday School adjustments will be forthcoming.

Assistance Fund Update

As of August 19, (two-thirds of the year) we have distributed $46,226.92. Our office staff has scheduled 202 appointments.

This represents an average of nearly $6,000 per month we are sharing with our neighbors. With 4 more months to go, we can anticipate another $25-$30,000 in requests. Gifts to the Assistance Fund are always appreciated, and keep in mind that our biggest source of revenue is our Giving Tuesday Event which will be on December 1st this year.

New Landscaping

Have you noticed the recent Messiah make-over? Nagelkirk Gardens has replaced old, overgrown plantings with plants recommended for maximum enjoyment with minimum care. The ultimate goal is to always have something in bloom to enjoy.

This undertaking would not have been possible without several generous donors: THANK YOU! Additional thanks go out to the faithful watering folk who continue to care for the landscaping around our church. It really does take a village.

Do you like being outside around pretty plants? Would you be interested in helping water our new plantings? We would love your help. Please contact Jennifer to volunteer for watering. Thanks again to all for the many ways you contribute to this congregation.

Food Donations Needed

Messiah now has two shelving units by the inside of the "canopy door" where food donations can be placed. Most of the food is going to people who come to Messiah and need food assistance. If Messiah has excess food, it is brought to the Salvation Army in Marquette.

Suggested food items:

*cans of tuna, salmon, chicken, peanut butter, canned beans

*whole grain cereals, rolled oats, rice and pasta

- *canned fruits and vegetables
- *cooking oil – canola or olive oil, pasta sauce, basic dried spices
- *applesauce, granola bars, juice boxes, baby foods (jars or pouches)
- *shelf-stable microwaveable meals

Please check expiration dates & do not bring expired items. Take a minute to look at Messiah's food shelves and decide what you can donate. Any donations are appreciated. Thank you!

Confirmation Retreats Initial Gatherings – Building Community

As we begin a new confirmation year, we're reminded that faith formation starts with community. Before students open a Bible or a catechism, they need to know they belong—to one another, to their congregation, and to the wider church across our conference and beyond.

This fall, our confirmation ministry begins with several gatherings designed to help students and families connect, meet leaders, and prepare for the journey ahead. These early steps help confirmands discover that they are part of something larger than their home congregation: a regional community of young people learning, questioning, and growing together in Christ. For students and parents 6th - yes 6th! - through 10th grade, please watch for emails and letters with full details. We are excited to begin this year with hope, joy, and a deep sense of God's presence among our young disciples.

Confirmation Orientation – Sept 9

6th (yes, 6th!)–9th graders and parents and/or spiritual guardians are invited to a confirmation orientation with Pastor Steve on Wednesday, Sept 9, 6:00–7:30 PM in Magnuson Hall. Pizza provided. Watch your email for details.

Affirmation of Baptism Planning – Sept 13

Students preparing to make their Affirmation of Baptism (aka, be confirmed) on Oct 25 will meet Sunday, Sept 13 at 9:45 AM in the sanctuary for a brief first preparation meeting. Watch your email for details.

Conference-Wide Confirmation Kickoff – Sept 20

7th–9th graders will gather with youth from across the conference at Immanuel, Negaunee, on Sunday, Sept 20, 5:00–7:00 PM. Watch your emails for details.

The remainder of Messiah’s “favorites” will be sung October-December 2026. Enjoy singing and keep your ears open and voice ready for additional well-loved hymns.

Pr. Katie Larson's Visit

Pr. Katie Larson's visit was a beautiful reminder about the relevance and impact of relationships with God's people throughout the world. Our Fair-Trade Market at Messiah showcases international artisans, including Colombian congregations working with Pr. Katie. You have an opportunity to volunteer with our Fair-Trade Market! Our market will be held Nov. 21-22 at Messiah. There are still some tasks that need volunteers. Please review the sign-up sheet on the welcome table and identify if you feel called to serve at this event. The Fair-Trade Market team will contact you to arrange the next step. Thank you for your support!

Different Times --- Different Voices

Clergy are messengers. Some are called as prophets, others as teachers, some are gifted as pastors (shepherds), still others as preachers and community organizers.

They do not inherit their vocation, nor is it passed down as part of any family lineage. The Spirit finds its voice as the wind blows. The Gospel beckons folks to leadership positions with faith communities from all experiences and backgrounds.

Yet, as stars sometimes line up, it comes to pass on rare occasions, a congregation hears voices from three generations of a family. In August, Josh Magnuson, a retired Secret Service agent and now a second-year student at Wartburg Seminary, preached at three Messiah worship services. His father, a one-time university chaplain, has preached over 100 sermons at Messiah over the last 20 years. Josh's grandfather, J. Otto, served as pastor at Messiah from 1955 – 64, preaching over 500 sermons as part of a wider ecumenical ministry in the Marquette community. Following Otto Magnuson's unexpected death in 1964, 20 Roman Catholic priests joined the gathering in Messiah's sanctuary for the funeral service. - - - Jon Magnuson

Superior Connections Recovery Community Organization

Dear Messiah Lutheran Church, As president of the board for Superior Connections Recovery Community Organization(SCRCO), I would like to express our gratitude for the grant that was made by the church toward our transportation needs for the organization. The funds were part of what we needed to be able to purchase a used, but good minivan for our participants and our projects. Many of the people we work with do not have steady transportation, and therefore miss important appointments, interviews, or are unable to attend our many chemical-free activities, such as kayaking, hiking, crafting etc.

Also a shout out to Mary Beth and Paul Carstens for donating their used van to our organization as well. These 2 vehicles have allowed SCRCO to step up dramatically our effectiveness in serving our participants.

SCRCO is a local organization that is made up of peer workers(who are themselves in stable recovery from alcohol or other substances) who help in one of our recovery houses, or in Fisher house(a transitional house). We also have peer navigators who accompany our participants who are unstable or in early recovery to help them find their way back to a stable job, a place to live, medical or substance use treatment, or any other way that puts them back on the right path. Thanks again to Messiah Lutheran, Fred Groos

Bowls for a Cause

Turned Wooden Bowls are available for a donation to the community assistance fund. They are located next to the homemade jams in the narthex. All bowls are homemade and are finished with a food safe finish. If you have questions about the bowls, they can be directed to Paul Carstens at pcarsten@alumni.nmu.edu.

Senior Men's Ministry

Messiah's Senior Men's Ministry is meeting every Friday at 9:00 am in room #202. We meet for about an hour. Please join us on Fridays!

Knotty Knitters

The Knotty Knitters will continue to meet at Messiah on the 2nd & 4th Tuesday of each month. The knitters typically meet in Magnuson Hall but occasionally meet in the atrium. They do join one another for lunch at Vangos prior to coming to Messiah. Please contact Jane Phillips for more information.

What is Centering Prayer?

Centering prayer is a form of silent prayer that emphasizes resting in God's presence through silence and a sacred word. It involves finding a quiet space, sitting comfortably, and focusing on a chosen word to help maintain stillness and let go of thoughts. The goal is to cultivate a deeper relationship with God through stillness and receptivity. Several members of Messiah lead groups that practice this form of prayer throughout the week as a piece of their faith life. -

Centering Prayer

In Centering prayer or meditation, we go to the Divine and still our minds and all we think we know, to receive the guidance that we have been promised. Here is an excerpt from “Manifesting God” explaining the benefits of going directly to our Source:

Manifesting God

Contemplation is not the reward of virtue, but a necessity in order to practice it. Christian history is the poignant story of how well or poorly each generation of Christians has assimilated Christ’s Abba experience.

God’s love has been poured forth into our hearts by the Holy Spirit who is given to us. Romans 5:5

...each of us has within us the whole program of divine transformation....The spirit dwelling in each cell of the Mystical Body puts at our disposal all the spiritual gifts we need to be transformed into the mind and heart of Christ and into full participation in the kingdom of God. Our false self develops a world-view of our own inventing. The pillars on which it rests are two: the emotional programs for happiness based on the instinctual needs of survival and security, affection and esteem, and power and control—and over-identification with the group to which we belong, whether this be ethnicity, tribe, family, nation, religion, peer group, or gang. Our unwillingness to let go of the support systems that keep our false selves in place is the source of every sin.

The true self is God’s idea of who we are.

One of the Fruits of the Spirit is gentleness. Efforts to further the Kingdom are not exhausting when they proceed from the inner resource of the Divine Indwelling. The desire for success or control damages the good works of people who have not accessed this particular Fruit of the Spirit. They think mistakenly, that everything depends on them, including their own progress in the spiritual journey.

What we most despise in ourselves may be the most direct route to divine union. God wills that we forgive ourselves for our past mistakes and for whatever unwanted memories are burdening our consciousness.

Thomas Keating—Manifesting God

Messiah AV Project Update

Our sanctuary AV upgrade is progressing, though a few portions of the installation are taking longer than expected. The remaining work involves specialized equipment, custom fabrication, and coordination with multiple contractors — all of which require careful scheduling. These delays are normal for projects of this scale, and the team is actively working with our partners to keep everything moving.

We're grateful for your patience and excited for the improvements this upgrade will bring to worship, livestreaming, and ministry communication. We'll continue to share updates as each phase is completed.

In the Hospital

Please inform the church office when you are hospitalized. Pr. Steve Solberg would like to visit you while you are there. If you are unable to notify Messiah, please ask a family member to do so.

Your Prayer Requests at Messiah

At every Saturday & Sunday worship service, we ask people to fill out a welcome card that is found in the bulletin. The card asks people to put their prayer requests on the back, and these requests are prayed for every Tuesday morning at Messiah's staff meeting. If you wish to have your name or a loved one's name read during worship, please call the office or let the pastor or Jen know. We will need to get permission before we include anyone's name in the worship prayers.

In Our Prayers

Please remember the following people in your prayers at this time: Paul Carstens; Milt Soderberg; Larry & Betty Brunton; Ernie Johnson; Peggy Letvenow; those who seek help from our financial assistance program; Jacelyn (pronounced Jack Lynn) Marra; Gloria Byrnes; Cassidy Eckloff; Sherry Watters; Renee Goyen; Stuart Harslah; Lisa Balko; Roger; Karen Sundeen; Linda Ruohoniemi; Charlie Blake; Sam Elder; Doug Morton; Jackie Greising; Art Ortlieb; Ruth Koehler; Sherrie Wagner; Betsy; Carrie Oslund; John Collins; Katie; Mary Ruman; Jeremy; Sally Olson; Carol Bell; Dorothy; Karen; Rose Collins; Don Hillegas; Grant; Kai Dolan; Samantha; Ted; Bruce Lindberg; Jamie; Donna; Brian; Ben; Evelyn; Karen Eldevick; Shannon; Marshall Lovan Magnuson; Peter; Shawn; Mae Desonia; Lisa Douros; Wayne Hanmer; Judy Donckers; Sierra; Charlene Avery

A Daily Guide for September

September 1 – Begin Again

Say a quiet blessing over this new month. Welcome it with open hands and a willing heart.

September 2 – The Gift of Routine

Notice one ordinary rhythm in your day—making coffee, a commute, packing lunch—and let it become a prayer.

September 3 – A Prayer for New Starts

Pray for all who are beginning something new this fall—students, teachers, caregivers, and those starting over.

September 4 – Walk with Intention

Take a short walk today. Let each step be a small act of presence. Whisper a prayer with your feet.

September 5 – Celebrate a First

What's a first you remember fondly—first day of school, first job, first friend? Let memory stir up gratitude.

September 6 – Bless the Work

Offer a blessing over your work—paid or unpaid, creative or caretaking. “God, may this labor be rooted in love.”

September 7 – Hold a Backpack Blessing

Whether it's your own, a child's, or symbolic: “God, may this carry not just books, but hope, courage, and wonder.”

September 8 – Find Beauty in Transition

Notice the light shifting, the air changing, the quiet transformation underway. Bless this in-between time.

September 9 – Pray for Educators

Lift up teachers, aides, mentors, and professors. Ask God to renew their energy and honor their calling.

September 10 – Let Yourself Be Taught

Learn something new today—however small. Receive it with childlike curiosity.

September 11 – Remember and Recommit

On this day of national memory, pray for peace. Let sorrow deepen your resolve to love.

September 12 – Practice Grounding

Place your feet flat on the floor. Breathe deeply. Say: “God, help me be rooted in you today.”

September 13 – A Mid-Month Check-In

How is your spirit? What do you need more of? Less of? Offer it honestly to God.

September 14 – Create Something Small

Draw, write, sing, cook, or build something—anything. Let it be a quiet act of joy.

September 15 – Rest in God’s Presence

Turn off noise for ten minutes. Be still. Imagine God resting with you.

September 16 – Light a Candle for the Future

As the church year edges toward harvest, light a candle and say: “God, guide what is yet to come.”

September 17 – Seek Out Wisdom

Ask a question you’ve been holding. Listen for an answer—in scripture, conversation, or silence.

September 18 – Welcome the Stranger

Look for someone who feels on the edge and extend kindness. Invite connection.

September 19 – Pray for the Church

Pray for your congregation, pastors, musicians, children, and ministries. Ask for renewed vision and joy.

September 20 – Practice Gratitude for Community

Name five people who help you feel less alone. Offer thanks for them—perhaps even tell them.

September 21 – Bless Your Tools

Bless the instruments of your daily life—your phone, your car, your pen, your planner. May they serve grace.

September 22 – Celebrate Autumn’s Arrival

As the season shifts, say: “Thank you, God, for cycles and seasons. For endings, beginnings, and all that falls in between.”

September 23 – A Prayer for Courage

Say: “God, give me the courage to show up as I am, to risk love, to keep becoming. Amen.”

September 24 – Declutter with Intention

Choose one area to clear today. As you do, whisper: “Make space in me, too, O God.”

September 25 – Pray for Students

Remember students of all ages today. Pray for curiosity, resilience, rest, and belonging.

September 26 – Return to the Psalms

Read a psalm aloud. Let its poetry hold your own prayers.

September 27 – Share a Sacred Meal

Eat intentionally today—with someone else, or with presence. Taste. Savor. Give thanks.

September 28 – Remember Your Baptism

Touch water today—washing your hands, walking in rain, sipping tea. Remember you are beloved.

September 29 – Practice Hope

Hope can feel risky. Try it anyway. Say: “God, help me hope for what I cannot yet see.”

September 30 – A Blessing for the Journey

Say: “God of every season, thank you for this month. Go with me into what’s next—steady, stretching, and sustaining me. Amen.”

Volunteers Needed – Little Brothers/Friends of the Elderly

Carol Steinhaus, a member of Messiah and the Transition Team writes: “ I believe we are put into this world to help each other. I volunteer for both Little Brothers Friends of the Elderly and Meals on Wheels. Both organizations need some help. I value both organizations and have found that my work with them has been very rewarding” There will be more information about helping with Meals on Wheels in next week’s enews.

“The organization that needs help now is Little Brothers/Friends of the Elderly. Often, seniors in town need rides to medical appointments. The cheapest taxi fare is $40 round trip. Door to Door MarqTran requires a lot of advance notice and gives priority to kidney dialysis patients. There is often a need for 5-10 rides a week. Ruth Robb and I both do this. Little Brothers posts an email list each week of who needs a ride, when and where, and we call the office and let them know what we are able to do. Even a single ride now and then helps! Occasionally, rides are needed from Gwinn. I’ve met some interesting people and made some nice friends this way. If you would like to know more or can help, call Tena at the Little Brothers office, 906 273 5575 ext. 2005.”
